MESSAGE FROM THE MINISTER

What a rich experience! To be the pastor of a church with the tremendous background this church has.

Timothy Dwight expresses my sentiments in that familiar hymn, "I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord".

"I love Thy church, O God! Her walls before Thee stand,
Dear as the apple of Thine eye, And graven on Thy hand.

For her my tears shall fall; For her my prayers ascend;
To her my cares and toils be given, Till toils and cares shall end.

Beyond my highest joy I prize her heavenly ways,
Her sweet communion, solemn vows, Her hymns of love and praise."

And just to think for one hundred and fifty years, the First United Methodist Church of Norwood has provided so many persons the privilege of knowing the God who made it all possible. Our hearts can surely rejoice at the thought.

On this occasion of our sesquicentennial observance, many souls are stirred. Mine is deeply moved. We have experienced the means of grace which the church alone supplies. We have discovered Christian fellowship as nowhere else provided, save the church.

When historians down the road digest these pages highlighting these 150 years of our local church history, they will surely conclude that this has been an exceptionally exciting era. The annals of history will bear out the authenticity of our commitment to Jesus Christ, her Head. Clearly, the total significance of this celebration remains to be assessed. However, for us, it is an exceedingly thrilling and meaningful occasion. Your own presence and participation help immensely to make it so; the rich heritage herein has already made it so.

Since June, 1972, it has been my happy privilege to know and love the host of persons who have contributed to the heritage of this church and who are making its present day history. I thank God, and you, for this high honor.

Indeed more can be said. Throughout these years I perceive a strange mixture of despair and hope, frustration and boldness, disillusionment and expectancy. And still, we know that we are where we are today, historically speaking, because of these important factors: HOPE, BOLDNESS, and EXPECTANCY AND THUS, SHALL WE CONTINUE!

In Christ’s Spirit,

Jack Kayler, Minister

FOREWORD

This booklet has been prepared as a contribution to the Sesquicentennial Celebration of the First United Methodist Church of Norwood. An attempt has been made to provide documentary data pertaining to the history and development of the church. The information herein is by no means complete or thorough, but perhaps in future years it will provide a basis for further research and study.

To write a history covering 150 years in the life of a church and to compile pertinent data is no small task, due to a scarcity of documents. The majority of information contained in these pages was taken from available records, including Quarterly Conference Journals, minutes of the Board of Stewards meetings, Sunday School records, Women's Missionary Society minutes, and several printed booklets and bulletins from earlier years. A few items were included from the recollections of members of the church and others in the community. Data, in most instances, is given verbatim from records.

As is the case in similar accounts, this booklet may contain errors unknowingly made due to the lack of complete records or to difficulty in reading and interpreting them. If there are errors of a historical nature, to help authenticate our records, please notify a member of the committee on records and history or the minister. This help would be greatly appreciated.

It is impossible to thank each person individually who contributed information or assisted in the preparation of this booklet. Without their assistance the booklet could never have materialized. Special recognition is given to the following:

Mrs. K. L. Young who spent hours and hours in persistent research gathering information to write the church history. She collected much of the information for other sections of the booklet and assisted with the compilation.

The Reverend Jack Kayler who gave advice, information, and support.

Mrs. E. M. Harris, Mrs. Blanche Freeman, and Miss Ruth Norwood who supplied records and information concerning the women's work.

Miss Ruth Norwood who provided much valuable information from the files of her father, the late J. H. Norwood.

Mrs. R. E. Young who prepared the report on young people's organizations.

Miss Betty Shankle who assisted with research on the music.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lanier who compiled the list of veterans.

Mrs. James I. Avett, Jr. and Mrs. John Garner who assisted with the writing, organizing, and editing. They also supplied constructive criticism and encouragement.

Mrs. James W. Talent, Jr. who prepared the 1975 membership roll.

Mrs. Jack Reid, Mrs. John Garner, and Mrs. Chester Lowder who contributed clerical assistance.

The earliest known record of the First United Methodist Church of Norwood dates to 1825, but there is strong support for the belief than an active body of Methodists had met and conducted camp meetings for some years prior to 1825.

The church lock box contains a paper dated September 3, 1825, signed by John Christian saying, "Surveyed five acres of land including Center Meeting House and Camp Ground." This same property was deeded on November 19, 1825, from George Kendall to the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Center for the stated purpose of "erecting a Meeting House and Camp Ground for Divine Worship." A sum of $25.00 was paid for the property.

Quarterly Conference Records of the Rocky River Circuit (sometimes known as Rocky River Montgomery Circuit), South Carolina Conference, show evidence that George Allen, Peter Randall, John Kendall (trustees), and John Christian (surveyor) were actively involved within the Circuit for many years prior to 1825. George Allen was listed as an exhorter in 1807; John Christian was a licensed preacher as early as 1808; Peter Randall and John Kendall were each class leaders as early as 1814. Serving as trustees with George Allen and Peter Randall were Wiett Randall and William Wall.

William Wall married Elizabeth Randall, the widow of John Randall, in 1836. Elizabeth and John Randall were among the founders of neighboring Randall Methodist Church. According to his diary, Bishop Francis Asbury stayed with Elizabeth and John Randall on six separate occasions.

From this evidence the conclusion is that there was a Camp Ground and Meeting House in existence in 1825. It is known that the four men listed above had all been active in the Rocky River Circuit for years prior to 1825. It was the custom in those days to have a central camp ground for an entire circuit. With Center (later named Norwood) as a crossroads on the center of the watershed between Rocky and Pee-Dee Rivers, and with ferries nearby, this was a logical location for a centralized camp ground.

It is told that early settlers had preaching services under a large brush arbor on the northeast corner of the crossroads. As the membership grew, a wooden arbor was built and families lived in tents all around the arbor, using bonfires for lighting and for cooking. These camp meetings became an annual affair from around 1817 until 1834.

The first church building was erected between 1820 and 1825. It was built of long logs with a large fireplace at one end and a pulpit at the other and with handmade benches and other furniture. Since nails were scarce the planks were put together with wooden pegs. Hand-rived shingles from green logs formed the roof. It is said that the first church building was built so that when it rained, the water on one side ran into the Pee-Dee River and that on the other side ran into Rocky River.

Center Circuit, of the South Carolina Conference, was formed in 1833. This Circuit included Norwood and other Stanly County Methodist Episcopal Churches: Bethel, Randall, Salem, Stony Hill, and Albemarle.

The date of the last camp meeting is unknown; however in 1841, Thomas Alexander Lowder attended Center Camp Meeting and was converted. It was not until 1858, under the ministry of Rev. J. W. Puett, who was serving the old Albemarle Circuit (at that time located in the South Carolina Conference) that he joined the Methodist Church. It is interesting to note that his son, J. M. Lowder (father of James Paul Lowder) later became a Methodist minister in the North Carolina Conference.

One year after the break with the Northern Methodist churches in 1845, the South Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the Annual Conference in Fayetteville, North Carolina, with Bishop J. O. Andrews presiding, mentions Center Circuit in the Cheraw District.\(^8\)

The Center Circuit kept its identity until 1847 when the churches in Stanly County were put into a new Albemarle Circuit. This circuit remained in the South Carolina Conference until 1870 when South Carolina gave up its churches west of the Pee-Dee River.\(^9\)

By the early 1880’s, after the War Between the States, the economic conditions must have greatly improved. The old church was moved back 100 feet to a location near the present town water tank to become a schoolhouse.\(^10\) The present church building was erected at that time. Frank Ivey, Whitman Smith, Eli Lentz, Thomas Colson, Jr., Eli Shankle, and T. A. Lowder comprised the building committee. Mr. Ivey was the building contractor. The beautiful curved beam ceiling was the talk of the countryside. Builders and engineers came from far and near to see it. Yet, in the beginning, there had developed considerable controversy in respect to the soundness of the idea of a curved beam ceiling. Mr. Ivey felt strongly that his architectural concept was sound and that he could build such a ceiling properly. By posting a performance bond of $1000, Mr. Ivey effectively silenced his critics.\(^11\) Although the church had one major renovation in 1916, and Sunday School rooms were added in 1956, the curved beam ceiling is the same one that Mr. Ivey erected in 1882. The sills, 10 x 12 inches in size, which Jacob and Eli Shankle donated, and which Jacob Shankle hewed with a broad axe, remain in the foundation of the church.

The first bell was bought in Salisbury and was hauled home on a one-horse wagon by Joe and John Bunn who rang the bell from time to time on the way to celebrate the great event.\(^12\) became the Norwood Circuit in the Salisbury District. Z. Paris was the first pastor.

A year after the Western North Carolina Conference was established by the General Conference of 1890, Norwood was removed from the Albemarle Circuit and along with Randall, Rehobeth, Mt. Zion, and Cedar Grove from the Stanly Circuit.

During the year of 1892, both the Albemarle Circuit parsonage and the Stanly Circuit parsonage were sold and the proceeds divided among the churches involved. A building committee for the Norwood Circuit parsonage was composed of the following men: J. M. Dunlap, F. F. Blalock, J. E. Hathcock, O. H. Upchurch, and W. F. Crump. The same five men were elected parsonage trustees.

The trustees of the Norwood Church were instructed "to dispose of any land lying on the west side of Pee-Dee Avenue, proceeds to go to Parsonage funds." They were also instructed "to convey by Deed to the Parsonage Trustees of Norwood Circuit, one half acre of Norwood Church lot for Parsonage property." 13

The following interesting items of the history and development of Norwood Methodist Church from 1892 through 1875 were obtained (unless otherwise noted) from records found in old Quarterly Conference Journals and from recollections of members of the church and community. 14

Even with all the transferring of property going on in 1892, Reverend Z. Paris was able to report to the Quarterly Conference: "We have six Sunday Schools on the charge. They are well attended; use our literature; are training men and women for the church; and are fitting souls for the sky."

In September 1893, Z. Paris reported that he had organized a class at Zoar, consisting of 48 members. The next year Zoar became the sixth church on the Norwood Circuit. It was located six miles from Albemarle, and about three miles from Randall Church.

In 1894, the new circuit parsonage in Norwood was finished, valuation of parsonage and lot $1100, "a garden worth about $100" was built; however, it was not until 1898 that a stable was provided for the pastor's horse. A Woman's Parsonage Society "which is doing great good" was organized.
A committee which had been appointed to advertise and sell the Arbor at Rehobeth in 1898 reported that it had been sold for $12.50. This amount "by action of Conference was appropriated to the enlarging of Rehobeth Church."

The pastor, J. A. Clarke, reported: "We have one of the best Woman's Missionary Societies; also the Parsonage Home Mission Society at Norwood."

In 1900, "The old log Church at Zoar has been sold as per order of last Quarterly Conference and the proceeds (fifty cents) reported to this Conference. Conference ordered that it should be used in the interest of Zoar Church." 15

An important change took place in 1901. Norwood Station was formed consisting of Randall and Norwood with a Sunday School at Fork Academy. J. O. Shelly was the first pastor. The other Norwood Circuit churches went into the Cottonville Circuit."

In 1904, G. G. Harley, P. C. (Pastor in Charge), reported "There are four Sunday Schools on the charge, all of which are doing good work. We have reorganized our 'Factory Hill' School under very favorable circumstances." In searching the records the first mention of a Sunday School on "Factory Hill" was June 2, 1902. This Sunday School was suspended in October 1903. After Rev. Harley reorganized the school, it continued until July 1905 when it had to be disbanded for lack of a place to meet. "A Chapel is to be built in the near future." Evidently the Chapel was built, for in 1906 there were again four Sunday Schools (Norwood, Randall, Fork, and Factory), and in April 1909, J. E. Gay, P. C., reported, "For two weeks I have been holding services at the Factory Chapel." After this, no other records were found concerning any services being held at Factory Chapel.

Authority was given to J. F. Shinn and J. D. Lee, V. L. Shankle, and E. M. Harris (members of the J. F. Shinn Sunday School Class) to build a classroom to the Methodist Church at Norwood. Authorized March 28, 1910.
December 4, 1911, "B. F. Ivey, G. T. Dunlap, and C. A. Lentz were elected a committee to install a lighting system in the church at Norwood. It was moved and carried that C. A. Lentz be appointed to have the church land surveyed and corners established."

The matter of the removal of the cemetery from the church lot to the Town Cemetery was discussed and the following committee was appointed to act if there were no objections: Bro. Shinn, Bro. Lee and J. H. Norwood (October 1915). The cemetery was moved.

Minutes from the fourth Quarterly Conference, October 1, 1917, contain a summary of the work done on the Church building during the quadrennium of Rev. R. M. Taylor.

Renovated the entire Church plant as follows: Built a Sunday School annex two stories with ten splendid Sunday School rooms, admirably adapted to the use of a modern Sunday School. Enlarged the old annex. Relocated the pulpit and seating plan of the auditorium, beautified the interior of the church so it will not suffer by comparison with any Church in the cities. Tore away the old tower which was too small and built a new one from the ground in which is placed a new 40 inch bell. Brick veneered the entire building. Provided a pastor's study in the church back of the pulpit, and furnished the entire plant with a most delightful lighting system. Heating plant cost about $500. Hot air furnace. Entire cost of renovation $6500. Church plant is easily worth three times as much as before."

In 1918 the trustees borrowed $3,000, more or less, from the Church Extension Board, to take up the present notes on the church. It was during this year that the influenza epidemic hit Norwood and Charles P. Bowles, son of the pastor, J. A. Bowles, said that his job was to ring the new bell every time there was a funeral at the church and that on some days he rang it as many as five times.

The first report of a Christmas Tree program being given was in 1919. "The attendance was large and the splendid program rendered was thoroughly enjoyed. Ira Erwin, P. C."

"At the fourth Quarterly Conference, October 1921, the matter of the separation of the Stanly County Methodist Circuits was discussed but no action taken." In the minutes of the first Quarterly Conference, December 1921, it is noted that Norwood and Randall had been separated, making Norwood a Station at this time with its own full-time pastor, C. M. Short. Randall was placed in the Norwood Circuit. The value of church property was $20,000. Later the northwest corner lot of the Norwood Church was deeded to the Norwood Circuit.

C. M. Short, P. C., 1921, suggested the following objectives:

(1) That we shall further beautify our already large and attractive lawn,
(2) That steps be taken as soon as practicable looking toward clearing our Church of all indebtedness,
(3) That we begin now to plan and pray for a gracious Revival.

The Sunday School superintendent, Dr. T. A. Hathcock gave this report in September 1922:

Our Sunday School sent and paid the expenses of four of our teachers to Junaluska Training School this summer and one assistant teacher attended the training school at her own expense.

Our teacher's meeting and worker's council have functioned fairly well most of the year. It seems difficult to get the teachers to attend a teacher's meeting. We recommend and hope to see a teacher training class organized soon.

Respectfully submitted,
September 17, 1922  T. A. Hathcock, Supt.

During P. O. Dryman's tenure as pastor the following were a few of the things accomplished:

Plans for remodeling the parsonage were being worked out (1924).
Cokesbury Hymnals were bought (1924).
A. F. Habry, H. S. Freeman, and Ed M. Harris were elected a parsonage Builders Committee (1926).
The Ladies Aid Society repaired the windows, painted woodwork and guttering of the church at an expenditure of $150 (1926).
The Fork Sunday School closed in 1928.

R. L. Young, Pastor, 1938-39:

The church has greatly enjoyed having Miss Louise Avett during her home vacation last year. It was our pleasure to have her conduct a number of services during the year. The last service she conducted was on December 18, after which the pastor, in behalf of the church, presented her with a love offering. Miss Louise is now on her way back to China, and as she goes the prayerful interest of the church will follow her.

Another item worthy of note and indicative of the seed that this church has been sowing, is the fact that another one of her sons, Clegg Avett, a brother of Miss Louise, was admitted into the Western North Carolina Conference last fall, and is now stationed at Landis. The church is duly proud of him, and is expecting great things of him.

Robes for the choir are being completed this week and will be ready for use Sunday.

A lovely piano has been bought, paid for and installed in the intermediate department.

One hundred new Methodist Hymnals have been placed in the church making a total of 175.

The church has built and furnished with lighting fixtures a most splendid tennis court just below the parsonage for the young people of the community. (The present parsonage stands on the site of the tennis court.)

1940: An old debt of $300 was paid off. Improvements were made on the church and parsonage and the church was free of all indebtedness.

1941: The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society became the Women's Society of Christian Service and Mrs. Raymond Skidmore became the first president.

The first baby born in the parsonage was Jane Hefner, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Cecil Hefner.

1942: We are rather proud of the Soldier's Lounge that was maintained by our church for the soldiers that trained in our community. R. C. Stubbins, Pastor.

Dr. Thomas A. Hathcock became Superintendent Emeritus after serving faithfully for thirty-six years. Mr. C. J. Scott became the new superintendent.

On Sunday, April 28, 1946, numerous records were placed in a cornerstone of the church. A paper written by Mr. John K. Norwood, regarding the history of the church and community, was placed in a copper box along with other data. In the same year the Methodist Hut was started.

1949: A Building Fund campaign was begun to raise $15,000 for building a new parsonage and for renovating the church. Building Committee:

D. E. Lefler, Chairman; L. E. Dry, Vice-Chairman; J. C. Guffy, J. L. Lee, M. V. Lowder.
1950: The Women's Society of Christian Service published a cookbook, and a second one was published in 1959.

1951: The new parsonage was built on the site of the old tennis court and the old parsonage sold and moved to a new location on New Street near the northeast section of the church property. (Now owned and occupied by a member of the church, Mr. J. T. Britt.) The site of the old parsonage was converted to a parking lot which still remains.

1954: The $8,000 note was burned and the parsonage was dedicated. Rev. E. O. Peeler initiated the summer program of Duke students to work with the young people.

1956: A new Sunday School addition was built joining the church with the Hut.

A new District was formed in 1960. The churches in Stanly, Union and Anson were put into the Albemarle District with the District Superintendent living in Albemarle. W. J. Huneycutt was the first District Superintendent.

The 25th anniversary of the Women's Society of Christian Service was celebrated on November 2, 1964, while Mr. McCulley was pastor.

Mrs. McCulley began a kindergarten in the Hut in the 1960's. Cottage prayer meetings were held on Sunday nights.

In 1970-71 the sanctuary was refurbished - new pews were bought and all over carpet was laid at a cost of $12,000. Memorial gifts were used to buy cathedral lights and help defray the cost of the renovation project.

A Lay Witness Weekend was held in 1973. Guests for the occasion came from many churches and spent the weekend in homes of members. The program was under the direction of Mr. Bob Parish of High Point.

In 1973-74 the Sunday School rooms, Hut, and parsonage were refurbished. A new heating and air conditioning system was installed, and the church kitchen was remodeled for a total cost of around $19,800.
Today the facilities are used by Methodists and others in the community. The Norwood Senior Citizens hold regular meetings in the Methodist Hut. The Nursery School is held on two mornings a week and Kindergarten on three.

A group of young people led by Gurney A. Barbee, Jr., formed a singing group known as "The Prophets". They gave their first concert in the church to an overflow crowd on May 27, 1973.

Gurney Barbee, Jr., has participated in the lake ministry at the Norwood Campground since its beginning about three years ago. He has held services there every Sunday during the past summer.

On September 27, 1975, a Mission Festival was held for the first time. Mr. and Mrs. Needham Snuggs were Project Chairmen. A steak supper, which was served to 800 people, and a bazaar, games, magic show, and auction sale netted $2,676 - all proceeds to be directed to the World Mission Specials of the United Methodist Church.

Although there have been many outstanding members of this church, there are several people who warrant special recognition. Mrs. J. F. Shinn was District Missionary Secretary for many years. Mr. J. F. Shinn was a delegate to the General Conference from the Western North Carolina Conference twice.

Miss Louise Avett was a missionary to China for 13½ years and later a missionary to Hong Kong for 10 years.

Others from the church have been active in the North Carolina Conference as ministers and Christian Educational Directors. You will find the complete list elsewhere in this booklet.

As we look back these 150 years, we recognize that ours is a great and glorious heritage. We trust that our lives may be lived by the grace of God in such a way that future historians may be justly proud of our accomplishments.

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS

The first account of a woman's organization was found in the Quarterly Conference minutes, dated April 7, 1894, when Z. Paris reported that a Woman's Parsonage Society had been organized to take care of the parsonage and other local needs.

The first official record from minutes of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society is dated April 16, 1905, with Mrs. G. G. Harley (wife of the pastor), as president. At the third Quarterly Conference held July 29, 1905, Mrs. Harley made the following report:

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society submits the following report - Each monthly meeting has been fairly well attended - with always a loyal and marked interest in our loved cause - number of members - 21. Amount raised to date $59.84.

Golden Links - (Young People's Society) organized in May with a number of 14. Young people very much interested. Amount raised to date $1.80.

The Light Bearers - (Children's Society) has a membership of 19 - are faithful little workers. Have raised for the cause this year - $10.14 - Total $71.78

Mrs. G. G. Harley, Pres. Woman's Aux.
Miss Minnie Coleson, Pres. Golden Links
Miss Ola Atkins, Pres. Light Bearers

Missionary meetings were first held at the church on Sunday afternoons, but in 1908, they began to meet in homes of members, with the first meeting at the home of Mrs. B. F. Ivey. Activities of the society have been varied and inspiring. Some sample excerpts from the 1908 minutes are:

Miss Bessie Ivey presided at the organ at the meeting in March. In October, a vocal duet, "Rock of Ages", was sweetly rendered by Misses Bessie Ivey and Nannie Watkins, accompanied at the piano by Miss Bertie Harris, in the usual artistic manner.

Mrs. M. E. Blalock gave a graphic report of the Annual Meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society (held) in Asheville.

In 1910, the following reports were made to the Quarterly Conference:

...We have undertaken the support of a native worker in Korea in addition to our regular assessments for missions... (March 28)
We have a Woman's Foreign Missionary Society that is thoroughly awake and is doing much to disseminate missionary intelligence in the congregation... T. E. Wagg, P. C. (October 3)
We have a Foreign Missionary Society which has done fine work. We rejoice that our good women are organized to help evangelize the heathen world... J. W. Clegg, P. C. (December 10)
Miss Lesca Freeman (Mrs. T. A. Hathcock), president, reported in September 1922, that the Missionary Society was "divided in three Circles with a membership of 37", and that they were working to raise the amount assessed them by the Conference.

A Communion Table was bought in 1923 by the Missionary Society.

At the first Quarterly Conference in January 1928, the Woman's Missionary Society gave the following report:

We are glad to report that for the last quarter the work of the Woman's Missionary Society has been along the lines of definite progress. During this time a forward step was when the Ladies Aid Society and the Woman's Missionary Society were consolidated. From this new organization we are hoping to become more and more useful in the Master's work...

Mrs. J. I. Avett, Secretary

During the year 1937, the name of the society was changed to the "Louise Avett Missionary Society" in honor of Miss Louise Avett, a foreign missionary. A tea was given to welcome her home on furlough from China.

A tea was given also to welcome the new pastor, R. L. Young, and his family.

Old dilapidated furniture at the parsonage was sold at a yard sale, with proceeds applied to replace a dresser.

In 1939, plans were made for the society to be responsible for placing flowers in the sanctuary each Sunday. Financial aid was given to a student at Brevard College.

Other activities of the society throughout ensuing years include:

- Sponsored a Brownie Troop
- Sponsored a child at the Methodist Children's Home in Winston Salem
- Sold magazine subscriptions
- Collected Octagon Soap and other coupons, and Green Stamps
- Held rummage sales
- Served suppers to the Lion's Club and other groups, including meals on election days
- Sent the Upper Room to college students, and to those in military service
- Bought screens for the Hut
The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was changed to the Women's Society of Christian Service and the charter meeting was held on September 3, 1941.

Following the unification of the Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren into the United Methodist Church, the Women's Society of Christian Service ceased to exist. Mrs. Herman F. Smith was the last president. In 1973, the United Methodist Women's organization was formed. There were 57 charter members and Mrs. K. L. Young was president. This year, 1975, the membership numbers 66.

Even though the names of the society have been changed from time to time, the work has been faithfully carried on by the women of the church.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S ORGANIZATIONS OTHER THAN SUNDAY SCHOOL

1897 - In summer, one Epworth League was organized with 47 members (no name). In November, two Leagues reported.

1898 - "...We have two Epworth Leagues in operation. There are about 100 members on roll in these two Leagues, but we are sorry to state that there is not a correspondingly large number who take active part in the work of the Leagues. We fear that the various officers do not put forth effort sufficient to carry on all the work intended for the League. But these Leagues both being young, there is reason to hope for improvement. We shall lose no opportunity to encourage and help the Leagues..." J. A. Clark, P. C.

This was in January of that year; in September, the Leagues were named, Randall and Norwood, with "...the one at Norwood...making decided progress in all its departments..." J. A. Clark, P. C. (Western North Carolina Conference created a Standing Committee on Epworth League in 1898 - we were one of 96 already existing in the Conference).

MUSIC IN THE CHURCH

Music plays a vital and necessary role in setting the mood for the worship service. Many messages are told through songs, whether they be specials, chorals, or congregational. Singing is a part of the service in which everyone can participate in expressing joy, love, peace, and praise.

There have been many organists, pianists, and choir directors. Among the organists and/or pianists are: Mrs. M. E. (Eula Ivey) Blalock, Miss Bess Ivey, Miss Ruth Rankin, Mrs. J. C. (Louise Kendall) Mabry, D. E. Lefler, Miss Louise Atwell, John Link, Mrs. James Lowder, Miss Johnsie Lee, Mrs. J. P. (Miss Polly) Lowder, and Mrs. John (Helen Lefler) Garner. Included among the choir directors are: Will C. Kendall, James Ira Avett, Mrs. J. V. Barringer, John Link, Mrs. J. P. Lowder, James I. Avett, Jr., D. E. Lefler, and Mrs. Ramelle F. Austin. At the present, Mrs. Ramelle F. Austin is director of the choir, and Mrs. John Garner is organist.

In the very early years a pump organ was used, then a piano. In 1936, the church purchased a new type of organ. John Link, music teacher in the Norwood School, went with a group of church people to Charlotte for a demonstration of a Hammond organ. They were impressed enough to influence the church to borrow $1500 to buy the organ, which is still in use. On July 27, 1947, Maas Chimes, presented by Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Lefler, were added to the organ.

There have been gifts of pianos. The present one in the sanctuary was given April 7, 1968, in memory of Earl Lefler by his family.

In years past various groups have joined together to sing. One such group was a Men's Chorus originally composed of James Ira Avett, Carl Boysworth, J. H. Boysworth, Charles M. Crowell, D. E. Lefler, Earl Lefler, S. V. Ross, and C. J. Scott. Later, at various times, James I. Avett, Jr., J. T. Britt, Francis B. Dunlap, J. C. Guffy, and George W. Heafner joined the group.
Numerous and varied musical programs have been given by children, youth, and adults of the church, as well as by different groups from other churches.

Hymnals have been bought and given as honor and memorial gifts to the church, the latest being the new red back (1966 edition) Methodist Hymnals. Still liked and enjoyed frequently is the Cokesbury Hymnal.

Over the years there have been changes in the choir dress, from the white vestments with black ties to the present day green robes with white stoles.

When Mrs. J. P. Lowder retired as organist, Sunday, September 16, 1973, was declared "Miss Polly Appreciation Day". Following the morning worship service a covered dish luncheon in the Hut was enjoyed by her family, special guests, and members of the congregation. Music was provided by Mrs. Frank (Doris Lefler) West, violin; James West, cello; Mrs. John (Helen Lefler) Garner, organ; and Mrs. Johnny (Mary Sue Shankle) Hopkins, piano. Tangible evidence of the love and appreciation of friends for Miss Polly and her many years of service as organist was evidenced by the sizeable contribution made in her honor to a fund for the future purchase of a new organ.

The choir members have always given their services voluntarily to enhance the worship program of the church through music, and many dedicated members have contributed years in this service. Scores of young people also have contributed to the musical program of the church. Many have sung in the choir and others have served as assistant pianists and/or organists. The church has been fortunate to have many members, young and old, talented in music, who have been willing to give freely of their time and talent.

There is nothing in any community that reflects the moral and spiritual life of a people quite so much as the Church and Sunday school. Judging from these standards, Norwood is at least equal to the average community. We believe in Norwood and in Norwood's people. Here are our homes, and these are our people. Never has our Sunday school been more co-operative, and the work our teachers are doing makes us glad. Still, we are conscious that many improvements can be made in both the administrative and instructive departments of our school. We want to make this year the best in our history. If each officer and teacher can more fully realize the responsibilities resting upon us; if all our parents share in these responsibilities - the year's success will have been assured. It should be the aim of every father and mother to bring their children to Sunday school every Sunday for religious instruction. Our teachers are doing hard, conscientious work. Many of these teachers have had an opportunity to better fit themselves for their task. Some are studying religious pedagogy and child psychology. They are not only spending time, and time is the most precious thing any of us have; but they are actually spending money to prepare themselves to teach your children. Let us not forget that all this work is gratis. Our whole Sunday school organization is on the volunteer basis. Not only do your officers and teachers volunteer for this work, but you come to Sunday school and Church on the same basis. Be a volunteer for Christ in earnest this year.

Christmas is here again. This is the season of the year, the time of all times, to remember the little brother and sister of the Christ Child, especially those who would be hungry and even homeless without our gift of love. Let us remember the needy this year. The Sunday school extends to every child in our community the greetings and good will of the season. The Sunday school will have a real Christmas tree at the Church. We are expecting all our little friends to come and enjoy this Christmas occasion.

In the moving away of brother J. A. Lilly and family, our Sunday school has lost two loyal, conscientious workers. Mrs. Lilly was one of our most conscientious teachers; and Mr. Lilly had been our general secretary for thirteen years, missing only four Sundays in all that time. Three of these were providential, and the other was taken for pleasure of a legitimate sort. We wonder if there is a better record anywhere. The Central Methodist Sunday school in Albemarle has, in the Lilys, good enthusiastic church workers. You Centralites take care of these folks; we have just loaned them to you for a while.

Our college boys and girls and the teachers will be coming home for the Christmas holidays. We welcome you one and all, for it is a source of much pleasure to have you with us again.
